

2005 Reports

Chippenham Folk Festival 27th - 30th May

This was long way to travel for us, but the journey was well worth it.

Again, lots of dancing around the town and in the arena, and an excellent line-up of big-name artists at the concerts.

Crook dressed up in their gaudy finery for a cocktail party on the campsite on Sunday night, and thoroughly enjoyed sharing their vat of home-made Pimm's-substitute with friends from Silhill and Blackadder.