

2012 Reports

Monday 16th July, Britannia Inn, Elterwater

After weeks of weather more suited to ducks, continuing with the morning of Monday 16th being as wet as ever, who would have believed that by 5pm the rain had stopped, and a glimmer of sun heralded in a fine evening.

A lively and welcoming audience enjoyed a range of dances from the Cotswolds, Border, and some Rapper.

I can't in all honesty claim that our dancing was as good as we are capable of but, being Crook, as always, we thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.
