Christmas Ceilidh - Saturday 7th December

My friend and I thoroughly enjoyed our first visit to your Christmas Ceilidh. It was brilliant and we hope to be there next year.

The Revellers just get better and better, and the Morris was great.

It was brilliant..... I loved everything, but especially when the brass section joined in on the music.....

However, on reflection the Morris themselves were fantastic, best I've seen yet and the Revellers had just the right mix of songs. Tumbling Tom, of course, are still the best ceilidh band around.

Thoroughly enjoyed the night, thank you.

The quality of the singing was fantastic.

I enjoyed the dance spot this year and found the presentation impressive.

I liked:-

Plenty of room to dance.

Intervals for song and dance spots made the night extra special.

Excellent ceilidh dances chosen for variety and "doability".

Dancing to festive tunes.

The friendliness of Crook Morris.

To improve:-

Nothing, your ceilidh is a highlight of my year and my whole family had a great time.
